ENCLOSURE: Plan View Line Drawing

REQUIREMENT HTA/SI/R-2/56: Furnish dimensions of buildings comprising possible experimental ship model basin in Leningrad.

REMARKS:

A possible experimental ship model basin is located about eight statute miles south of the center of Leningrad. The main Leningrad/Moscow highway runs along the southwest side of the installation, with the Leningrad Meat Processing and Storage Plant "Lenmol" situated on the opposite side of the highway.

25X1A

The main identifying feature of the installation is the building complex which includes the 2175-foot-long possible towing basin. This building appears on World War II photography. Except for three small buildings all others have been added during a postwar expansion program. Dimensions of all major buildings are indicated on the attached plan view, which is not drawn to scale.
